The Jack & Jill Children's Foundation

The Jack & Jill Children's Foundation was founded by husband and wife team Jonathan Irwin and Senator Mary Ann O'Brien (Founder of Lily O'Brien Chocolates) based on their own experience caring for their son Jack at home until he passed away in December 1997. This experience became the blue print for the Jack & Jill model of home nursing care for children with developmental delay as a result of brain damage. The charity also provide end of life care to all children up to the age of four and has helped almost 2,000 families since 1997.

This vital nationwide service includes funding, home visits, advice, information, lobbying and bereavement support. Jack & Jill requires €2.7 million per annum to continue to protect fragile children all over Ireland and, with less than 20% coming from the State, the Foundation raises the money it needs through public donations and big, big fundraisers like this one. All monies raised on the Hares on the March will be used to fund home nursing hours for precious children who deserve the best possible care at home.

Remember every €16 raised provides one hour of home nursing care for a very sick child.

If you find 20 hares, fill in the form overleaf and you could win one of many fantastic prizes.

From Parading Pigs to Marching Hares!

Last year we had great fun with the 'Pigs on Parade' around Dublin and this year with our 'Hares on the March' we intend to keep people of all ages entertained whilst they walk around Dublin city centre finding, appreciating and enjoying the wonderful pieces of art that have been created by our superbly talented artists from all over Ireland and the UK.

Since working on this project people have asked me 'Why a Hare?' Well, there are many reasons. The hare is Irish, rich in mythological significance, associated with the Dawn, the wheel of life, the Spring, madness and genius and, famously, hares go mad in March. They live lonely lives. We thought we might bring them out into society for a bit of a swagger, to everyone's benefit.

Once again we owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to so many people such as all the superb artists (one and all) who participated, those who submitted applications but unfortunately were unsuccessful with their designs. Lily O'Brien's Chocolates as our main sponsor and the business community in general. The individual companies who have Adopted some hares and Sponsored others have made such a valuable contribution, last and by no means least the general public who always make our Public Arts Initiatives so much fun and so worthwhile.

We are giving everybody the opportunity, around Ireland and around the World to make an online bid for their favorite hare and as for the selected 25 Golden Hares these will go to our Live Auction at the RCPI on Tue 15th March where the brilliant John deVere White, from deVeres Art Auctions will do what he does best.

Passionate about Chocolate

Lily O'Brien's, one of Ireland's best-loved chocolatiers, is delighted to sponsor Hares on the March 2016 in aid of the Jack and Jill Foundation.

Just like the ingredients of a wonderfully crafted chocolate, Hares on the March combines Art, Community, Fun & Charity to create an exceptionally unique experience to be shared by families across the country.

Follow us on Facebook to see how we're celebrating Hares on the March throughout Spring!

ADOPT A HARE

You can bid online for any Hare except the Adopted hares until close of business on Monday 21st March 2016 at 5pm. However the 25 Hares that are in the Live Auction will be removed from the online bidding on the 15th March at 5pm and will be auctioned off at the Live Auction in the Royal College of Physicians Ireland on Kildare St., Dublin 2 that evening. You can bid on these hares by attending the live auction or we can take absentee bids as well as 'best and final' bids.
